Vendor comments "A beautiful and charming two double bedroom converted period maisonette, with a garden, forming part of an attractive semi-detached period property.

This finely presented family home comprises two large double bedrooms, a modern reception room, modern kitchen, contemporary bathroom and an impressive private rear garden with a side deck where you can host Summer BBQ's, or just sit outside with your morning coffee listening to the birds or watch your pet cat play with the local cats.

The property is situated on a quiet road with an abundance of local amenities & shops close by".
